EVENTS

Landmarked Building Bingo

May 1-31

Louisville is home to a variety of historic buildings, each with its own story to tell. Pick up a free bingo board at the Louisville Public Library, Historical Museum, or City Hall during the month of May, and take a stroll through downtown to find some of these buildings. If you find five in a row, you can bring your completed board to Louisville City Hall for a prize anytime during the month of May! For more info, email abrackett@louisvilleco.gov.

Lyons Redstone Museum

Every weekend: Saturdays 9:30AM-4PM and Sundays 12:30-4:30PM
340 High Street, Lyons

The Lyons Redstone Museum starts the 2023 season this month. Come by to learn about Lyons' history! The museum is housed in the town's historic schoolhouse and has exhibits on the town founders, the history of the railroad, the local quarries, Lyons schools, and more. Browse the gift shop and used bookstore before exploring the historic buildings in town through a self-guided Historic District Walking Tour hosted on the Clio App www.theclio.com/tour.910. Donations accepted. For more info, call the Lyons Redstone Museum at 303-823-5271.

"Louisville's Music Makers" Open House

Friday, May 5 from 6-8PM

Louisville Historical Museum, 1001 Main St., Louisville

Louisville hosts First Friday events each month, and the Historical Museum plans an open house with a different historic theme. The theme for May is Louisville's music. Louisville has been home to many big bands, marching bands, ensembles, even one performer who made it big in Hollywood! Stop by to learn more about Louisville's musical history! See the Museum website for more details.

Superior Historical Museum Open House

Saturday, May 6 from 11AM-2PM

100 E. William Street, Superior

The Superior Historical Commission is holding an open house at their temporary museum. The original historical museum perished in the Marshall Fire. Until a new replacement is constructed, the museum is housed in the historic Grasso Bungalow in Grasso Park. Come visit to see how the Museum collection is being rebuilt and put on exhibit. Commission members will be on site to show visitors around and answer questions. For more info, contact Jennifer Garner, Town Staff, at 303-499-3675 or Larry Dorsey, Commission Chair, at 303-499-1969.

Historic Walk Through Original Superior

Saturday, May 6 at 2PM

100 E. William Street, Superior

The Superior Historical Commission will lead a walk through Original Superior to the Industrial Mine and Mine Camp site. The walking tour starts at Grasso Park and proceeds southward to Boulder County Open Space where the mine site is located. Visitors will see the foundations of the various mine structures and numerous camp houses. Participants should expect to walk around two miles, much of it on uneven soil and debris from the mining days. Please wear substantial footwear and bring sunscreen and water. Walk will begin shortly after 2:00PM when the Museum Open House is over. For more info, see contact info above.

Mid-Century Modern Tour

Saturday, May 13 from 2-4PM

Boulder, location will be disclosed at registration

Join Architect Leonard Segel to learn the history and features of several important Modernist Buildings downtown. The contributions of architects whose designs made Boulder what it is today include Glen H. Huntington, Hobart Wagener, Cab Childress, Charles Haertling, James Hunter, and Roger Easton. See Historic Boulder website for more details.

Guided History Hike in Boulder Open Space Parks

Tuesday, May 23 from 5:30-7:30PM

Centennial Trailhead, 301 Sunshine Canyon Dr.

Join naturalist Suzanne Michot on a hike to discover Mt. Sanitas' follies, falcons, flakes, and formations. Over three rocky miles, you will learn some of the history, traditions, and geology of one of Boulder's most interesting parks. Space is limited. See Historic Boulder website for details.

Louisville Landmarks: Celebrating New Landmarks

Thursday, May 25 at 6PM

Louisville Historical Museum, 1001 Main St., Louisville

Join us to celebrate Louisville's newest landmarks in the City's annual plaque ceremony. Visit the 2022 landmarks, learn their history, and meet other Louisville history lovers. The walking tour will begin at the Museum. For more information, contact abrackett@louisvilleco.gov or 303-335-4594.

The Impact of the Federal Labs In Boulder

Thursday, May 25 from 5:30-6:45PM

National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST)
25 Broadway, Boulder

Join Architect Leonard Segel to learn why NIST, during the Cold War era, chose Boulder for the location of its Central Radio Propagation Laboratory and the impact that decision had on our community. Space is limited. See Historic Boulder website for details.

Gold Hill History Museum Opening Weekend

Sat., May 27 - Mon., May 29 from 12-5PM each day

Gold Hill History Museum, 661 Pine Street, Gold Hill

Learn about the fascinating history of Gold Hill's early days when Gold Hill was bigger than Boulder! We'll share with you the inspiring stories of the Chicago professional women who kept Gold Hill alive in the early to mid-20th century. There will also be fun Gold Hill swag and gifts available at the store. Donations to the Museum are encouraged. For more information, contact Debra Yeager at 303-881-7665.

All events are free!
